

Future Earth's marine networks: a trans- and interdisciplinary scientific community working toward the achievement of the SDGs

Join us in Lisbon to learn about the program Future Earth and its associated scientific marine networks and working groups.

We believe that our international network can play a key role in achieving SDG-14, come discover why.

REGISTRATION MANDATORY HERE

- 09:30 - 09:35 Introduction - Clément Brousse
- 09:35 - 09:40 The Ocean Knowledge Action Network - Anna Zivian
- 09:40 - 09:45 Surface Ocean Lower Atmosphere Study (SOLAS) - Erik van Doorn
- 09:45 - 09:50 Future Earth Coasts - Alice Newton
- 09:50 - 09:55 The Ocean task force of the Earth System Governance Project (ESG) - D.G. Webster
- 09:55 - 10:00 Arctic Cryosphere Change and Coastal Marine Ecosystems working group (Past Global Changes) - Sofia Ribeiro
- 10:00 - 10:05 The Early Career Ocean Professionals - Erin Satterthwaite
- 10:05 - 11:00 "How and why Future Earth is well positioned to help achieve SDG14" - panel discussion moderated by Clément Brousse
- 11:30 - 13:00 The Youth4Ocean Forum presents its side event (details HERE)

30 June 2022, 9:30 – 11:00 - Institut français du Portugal
Rua Santos-O-Velho 11, Lisboa – 80 seats only

